ORDINARY

Although our first reading depicts a violent battle, the point is clearly made that continual prayer brings results. Not only that, but we can help each other to pray. Listening to this reading and the others, what else can we learn about persistence and prayer today?

Exodus 17:8-13 As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight.

2 Timothy 3:14-4:2 The scriptures train you to stay with the task.

Luke 18:1-8 Be persistent in prayer, especially in the pursuit of justice.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

On October 22nd and 23rd we will take up a collection for the Propagation of the Faith in support of the World Mission of the Church.

On this 90th World Mission Sunday, you share the common missionary call of all Christians to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. Through this collection the Society for the Propagation of the Faith supports missionaries in 1,111 Mission Churches annually. The Mission Churches provide service and spiritual comfort for the poorest and most vulnerable, sanctifying them with the Sacraments, and offering them the Lord's hope and peace.

Pope Francis reminds us in his message to the World 2016, "Let us not close our hearts within our own particular concerns, but let us open them to all of humanity."

Please support the World Missions in the second collection.

VOCATIONS

People often wonder why God doesn't answer their questions. Perhaps this feeling of being ignored comes because when we are more eager to tell God what we want to know then to sit back and allow God to show us what we need to know. Just as fireflies are best seen in the dark, the voice of God is best heard and understood in the calm of our hearts and minds. Give God the floor, and allow God to show you His plan to you. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Andrew Lauriella at 716-847-5535. Check out the "Priest of the Month" at our website. www.buffalovocations.org
